

HOAG SPIRITUALITY CONFERENCE

THE SPIRITUALITY OF COMPASSION

DATE:
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 2024
8:00 AM - 3:30 PM

LOCATION:
FULLERTON FREE CHURCH
2801 BREA BLVD., FULLERTON,
CA 92835

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Faith Community Nurses, Chaplains, RNs, MDs, Social Workers, other healthcare providers, faith leaders, caregivers, and all who are interested in the topic of Spirituality and Health. Individuals of all faith traditions are welcome and encouraged to attend.

OVERVIEW:

This conference examines compassion as a critical and healing component for our own self-care and in enabling us to provide excellence in patient/client care. Experience a slate of national and international thought-provoking speakers who will present a diverse range of topics through a spiritual lens designed to support you, your patients, and others you care for as we confront life's ever-changing circumstances. Participants will discover shared & divergent values in providing supportive healthcare interventions; advance end of life discussions and honor patient decisions; create balance between physical health, mental well-being, and spiritual peace through healthy lifestyle choices; and more.

SPEAKERS:

- BETH SCHWARTZ, PHD, RN, PHN, MAT: UCLA Public Health Nursing Faculty
- MICHAEL ESELUN, BCC: Board Certified Chaplain, named the Dr. John Glaspy Chaplain in Oncology Care for the Simms/Mann-UCLA Center for Integrative Oncology
- WILLIAM "BILL" HOY, DMIN, MDIV, FT: Clinical Professor of Medical Humanities, Baylor University, Waco, TX
- ESSRAA NAWAR, MBA, MA, MLIS: Assistant Dean for Library DEI Initiatives and Development and Academic Librarian
- AJITA PATEL, AD: Ayurvedic Doctor and Panchakarma Specialist, writer, and teacher

ACCREDITATION:

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 17163, for 5 contact hours.

REGISTRATION: Registration Fee - Discounted $50.00 | Late Registration Fee after February 23, 2024 $75.00

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER